Discussed that there has been an improvement at pick up and drop off with traffic and taxis.

J Armour thanked PC for funding the school trips (total £800.00).

Councillor Ralph Barker emails have been undelivered.

Matters arising from minutes: N/A

Correspondence:

M Turner had previously invited PC to meeting at head office on 31/3/25 but no one could attend. M Turner received email re a portal for PC.

Treasurer's Report:

£3191.80 current balance

£800.00 paid for school trips

HMI Feedback ASPs:

M Turner raised concern that parents aren't currently aware of ASPs that should be shared each term. Progress has been mentioned at parent consultations. H Seaton explained that ASP targets are focused individual targets specific to the individual child, such as working on communication etc, which is based on feedback from HMI. H Seaton will inform parents during transition time to expect ASP documents every term going forward. ASP targets will be emailed out to parents before the end of this session.

Head Teacher Report - see attached document.

RSHP:

This is compulsory each year across Scotland throughout all schools. Letters have been issued to all parents via learning journals.

Sports day:

J Armour will speak with S Savova re chairs and use of hall etc.

Shorts and Shades disco:

Angie to DJ 3 separate discos on Friday 30th May. Usual snacks provided from PC. Requested £1 per child.
